|-----|--|----------|----------|---------|----------|----------|
| Que | estion   | Strongly | Slightly | Neutral | Slightly | Strongly |
| 1   | Criticism will obviously up-set the person who receives the criticism.       |          |          |         |          |          |
| 2   | It is best to give up my own interests in order to please other people.      |          |          |         |          |          |
| 3   | I need other people's approval in order to be happy.                         |          |          |         |          |          |
| 4   | If someone important to me expects me to do something I really should do it. |          |          |         |          |          |
| 5   | My value as a person depends greatly on what others think of me.             |          |          |         |          |          |
| 6   | I cannot find happiness without being loved by another person.               |          |          |         |          |          |
| 7   | If others dislike you, you are bound to be less happy.                       |          |          |         |          |          |
| 8   | If people whom I care about reject me, it means there is                     |          |          |         |          |          |
|     | something wrong with me.   |          |          |         |          |          |
| 9   | If a person I love does not love me, it means I am unlovable.                |          |          |         |          |          |
| 10  | Being isolated from others is bound to lead to unhappiness.                  |          |          |         |          |          |
| 11  | If I am to be a worthwhile person, I must be truly outstanding in            |          |          |         |          |          |
|     | at least one major respect.  |          |          |         |          |          |
| 12  | I must be a useful, productive, creative person or life has no purpose.      |          |          |         |          |          |
| 13  | People who have good ideas are more worthy those who do not.                 |          |          |         |          |          |
| 14  | If I do not do as well as other people, it means I am inferior.              |          |          |         |          |          |
| 15  | If I fail at my work, then I am a failure as a person.                       |          |          |         |          |          |
| 16  | If you cannot do something well, there is little point in doing it at all.   |          |          |         |          |          |
| 17  | It is shameful for a person to display his weaknesses.                       |          |          |         |          |          |
| 18  | A person should try to be the best at everything he undertakes.              |          |          |         |          |          |
| 19  | I should be upset if I make a mistake.                                       |          |          |         |          |          |
| 20  | If I don't set the highest standards for myself, I am likely to end          |          |          |         |          |          |
